1. Start each day as an intentional "people first" leader

2. Remember your values

3. Recite your purpose statement

4. Utilize the Quick Coherence® Technique to ensure your body, mind and spirit are in alignment

5. Focus on your leadership strengths as you go about your day

6. Use positive thinking to increase your personal energy

7. Use heart-based energy to share with others

8. Build new relationships and cultivate current ones

9. Help each team member be the best version of themselves

10. Help each team member move toward their goals, both personal and professional
